MESSAGE FROM JOE PORTER – Well done Joe!

A huge thank you to everyone in Endon and beyond who encouraged and helped me run my first ever Potters Arf Marathon and in 2 hours. Thanks for helping me raise £500 for the Donna Louise Children's Hospice and Douglas Macmillan Hospice – two amazing local causes that are very close to my heart. The support motivated me to the finish line!

HARVEST GIFTS

Thank you everyone for your generous response to our appeal for donations to Leek Food Bank at our Harvest Thanksgiving Services on September 26th. Thank you also to Roger and Sue Forrester who kindly loaded their car with bags and bags of packets, cartons, tins and bottles and took them all across to the depot in West Street where they were well received.

ST LUKE'S CE ACADEMY Pupils will be bringing some of their poetry and pictures into the church for our Service of Remembrance.

FLOWER & CRAFT CLUB

We have had two successful meetings so far this autumn and also met to arrange flowers for the wedding of Andrea Platt and Matt Hill on October 2nd. It was a very wet day but nothing could spoil the occasion. They were very pleased with the flowers in church and sent a message of thanks.

Our next meeting is on November 10th when we will be making arrangements for a display on Remembrance Sunday. New members are always welcome or bring your knitting or sewing and enjoy a chat and cuppa. Sue

CONNECTIONS

As you know, the Connections service restarted in the school hall at the end of the summer holidays and continues each week at 11am. The service is child friendly and lasts about 40 minutes. The children have thoroughly enjoyed parachute games outside recently. The first Sunday of the month is particularly aimed at families and is very interactive. A warm welcome awaits new members. Sue

CHRISTMAS WREATH-MAKING WORKSHOP

The workshop will take place on Saturday 13th November in the village hall from 2pm to 4pm. Tickets are £20 and include a wreath ring, spool of wire, moss and evergreen foliage. Bring your own decorations. Drinks and snacks will be served and are included in the cost. Places are limited so please see Sue for your ticket.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

I intend to publish greetings as usual in our December newsletter so that we can still support the Christian Blind Mission. Please submit your greetings by November 23rd together with your donation (suggest £5 minimum). Cheques can be made payable to Endon St Luke's PCC. Ros

CHRISTMAS FOOD BANK COLLECTION

During November we will be collecting special Christmas food for the Leek Food Bank such as Christmas cakes, mince pies, tins of biscuits and children's selection boxes.

These should be in church by Sunday 28th November so that they can be taken to the Food Bank at the beginning of December for distribution before Christmas. Please check that sell-by dates are at least January 2022. Sheila H

PRAYERS HEARD: JOY ABOUNDS

NOVEMBER IS SOMETIMES THE MONTH WHEN THE CHURCH'S NEW YEAR BEGINS AND THAT IS THE CASE THIS YEAR AS ADVENT SUNDAY FALLS ON NOVEMBER 28TH.

DR LINDSEY HALL FINDS IT ALWAYS BRINGS JOY...

A very senior priest, well-loved and well-respected was given a great honour and asked to perform a very important aspect of worship in a significant service. As he did this, he was surrounded by people praying, and it was an incredibly special moment. He felt God speak to him and the word he was given was that his prayers were heard. He was overwhelmed by this and wondered if it could possibly be true. There was one thing in particular that he had been praying about for years. He believed God heard his prayer, but was reconciled to the idea that God was giving him a different answer than the one he really wanted. He and his wife had been hoping for a child for years, but whilst all their friends had started families, it never happened for them, and he didn't believe it would happen now. But that was the word he heard God say to him: your wife will have a child.

Well it wasn't just recently, it was 2000 years ago. This is the story with which the evangelist Luke begins his account of the Good News of Jesus. He tells about Zechariah and Elizabeth, faithful believers who experience a much-hoped for miracle. But that is only the intro! The story that unfolds includes many more surprising acts of God with the birth of Jesus to a young, unmarried woman. A birth celebrated by shepherds and angels. And it's a story that just gets better and better! Luke's is a Gospel of joy! From the angel who proclaims the good news of great joy for all the people in chapter 2, to the rejoicing over finding the lost coin, the lost sheep and the lost son in chapter 15 to the two disciples who after encountering Jesus on the road to Emmaus return to Jerusalem with great joy in chapter 24, joy abounds in this gospel.

From the beginning of Advent, the lectionary will give us passages from Luke most Sunday mornings for the next year. Like each of the four gospels, Luke has its own distinctive feel and way of sharing the Jesus-story. Luke's joyful sharing seeks to capture the way lives were changed by Jesus, the way in which outsiders were included, the extravagance of God's love shown in Christ and the way in which with Jesus, riches way beyond money can be received. These aren't one offs that happened long ago, but are an invitation to each of us to receive the good news of Jesus and all that means. As you hear passages from Luke over the coming year, remember Zechariah, surprised by God all over again, and listen for the angels proclaiming good news of great joy for all people.

REDWINGS ON THE WING

Throughout October and November something special is happening in our night skies. Huge numbers of redwing are migrating from Northern European forests, which empty of most bird species before winter strikes. Coming from Scandinavia and Russia they migrate into the UK, Ireland and western France. Bird books describe the redwing call as seeih and once you have learned it, you may hear a redwing call overhead every few minutes, wherever you are in the UK, as they pass over in a wave of birds. There are a few pairs (about 80) of redwing breeding in Scotland but really, they are a winter visitor to our shores.

Redwings are a small thrush, of similar size to our song thrush but with darker brown plumage and the characteristic flash of colour from the red feathers on their under-wings as they fly. Look out for them feeding in the churchyard, you may be seeing birds fuelling up on migration or winter visitors who will stay for a few months. Redwings feed on berries, fallen fruit and will find soil invertebrates in short grass, pulling up worms or digging out leather jackets. They can be seen in flocks, with other thrushes such as fieldfare, mistle thrush and song thrush, feasting on yew berries and making a real mess! Winter thrushes descending on churchyard yews are one of the sights that chart the changing seasons for me.

You can help redwing and other thrushes by providing berry bearing shrubs and trees and thinking of your hedges as ladders for weary travellers. Leave hedges untrimmed until February or early March so that birds may shelter within them and feed on hedge fruits such as hawthorn berries. Churchyards are usually free of pesticides which allow soil invertebrates to thrive, providing lots of nutritious meals. Yew trees provide both food and shelter and also give us the opportunity to really look at these lovely birds and think about the long journey they have made to reach us. Please let us know if you see redwing or other thrushes in your churchyard or cemetery.
