I will be having my farewell service at Endon Methodist Church on Sunday 14th July, but it will be at the later time of 10.30am.

I hope that that means that you might be able to attend after your service, even if a few minutes late.

The invitation is to anyone who wishes to come.

*Every blessing
Eleanor*

JAMES BENSON Reader Emeritus

A service of celebration for the life of our James will be held at St Luke's at 2.00pm on Monday, July 8th followed by interment in the lawn cemetery. All who knew James are welcome to attend and to join the family afterwards for refreshments at the Lockside, Stockton Brook Golf Club.

Ros has been overwhelmed with kind messages of condolence and extends a big THANK YOU to you all.

PASTORAL TEAM (Phone nos on back page)

HILLSWOOD LODGE CARE HOME: next visit Wed July 17th at 11.00am

Volunteers are welcome to help boost the singing. There is room for 6 or 7 of us. Please inform Shirley or Rev Patricia if you are able to come. The residents really do enjoy these services and the chats afterwards.

HOME and CARE HOME VISITS: Pastoral team members regularly visit folk who are no longer able to attend church. Do get in touch with Shirley if you know of anyone who would like a visit.

WALKS followed by refreshments: Listen up for details of the next walk. Do join us.

MABEL McGRATH

It was with great sadness that St Luke's received the news that Mabel had died. Mabel had been a long-standing member of our congregation until she was no longer able to attend church. She was visited regularly by Ann Boulton who was a good friend of hers and a member of our pastoral team. Our thoughts and prayers go to Mabel's family and friends who will miss her a great deal.

May was another relatively busy month, and significantly busier than the same period last year:

Total vouchers fulfilled	= 95	(78)
No. of Adults fed	= 129	(116)
No. of Children fed	= 83	(71)
Total no. fed	= 212	(187)

We are seeing an increasing number of clients whose financial situations seem to be “stuck”, in that they have had a financial check from CA and budgeting advice, but there seems to be little that can be done to improve their ability to make ends meet. During May, I attended a Citizens Advice Insight briefing, entitled “Is the cost of living crisis really over?” not surprisingly, whilst there are some areas showing marginal improvements, the answer was a long way from being positive! A couple of very sobering statistics, (there were plenty more!) – Citizens Advice stated that more than half of the clients that they have helped with debt over the last year, were still in negative budget after those debts had been cleared. And in a survey carried out by the TUC, 80% of teaching staff stated that they regularly provided food for children who were hungry. We now have 38 clients who have had 3 or more vouchers in the last six months. We continue to work with them, and with their referral agents, but ultimately, when they run out of money before their next pay day, we are the only ones who are there to help.

It is very important for us to have as much information as possible regarding clients’ individual circumstances, both to be able to offer the right support and to ensure that the hugely generous donations we receive are being used appropriately. This involves a few difficult questions, but is necessary for client wellbeing and Foodbank integrity. Figures for stock weighed in last month show that we purchased 23.73%, which compares, very unfavourably, with 12.91% purchased in May 2023. Whilst we are very fortunate that our financial reserves enable us to meet the shortfall in stock, we absolutely need to work to improve clients’ situations so that they are not in such desperate need of our help. Here is our shopping list, all items very gratefully received :

The timing of the election has taken us all by surprise, and certainly the Trussell Trust, which had a whole summer of campaigning planned, both nationally and locally with their individual Foodbanks. Through the following link you can see a breakdown of the End of Year statistics, details of the Essentials Guarantee, and a link to Trussell Trust’s Election Manifesto, all very interesting reading.

<https://www.trusselltrust.org/2024/05/15/heres-what-needs-to-change-to-end-the-need-for-food-banks/>

We are the nominated charity for a week long food drive at Morrisons from 1st to 7th July – our volunteers will be in store on Saturday 6th July. Hopefully these events will provide a much needed boost to our stock levels. Please pop in to see us on either of these days.

If you are a donor, please try to deliver your donations at the Foodbank on Tuesday and Friday between 10.00 am and 12 noon – as it gets very busy with clients after this time. Alternatively, you may use any of our Permanent Collection Points which are still available at various locations listed on our website <https://leekdistrict.foodbank.org.uk/give-help/donate-food/>.

If any of you would like to discuss anything relating to the Foodbank or arrange a visit, please contact me at projectmanager@leekdistrict.foodbank.org.uk or on 07916 005064. Thank you all for your ongoing support for all that we do. We are also able to collect any large donations - please contact the Foodbank to arrange this.

And, last, but by no means least I would like to give a massive shout out to our wonderful team who are “simply the best”! They give so generously of their time, are an absolute hilarious joy to work with, and are just the kindest, most compassionate bunch of people you could ever wish to meet. So, thank you to each and every one of you, you are the Foodbank and you make me so proud.

Goodbye from Rev Eleanor Smith

I will be leaving the Staffordshire Moorlands Methodist Circuit at the end of July and I want to say thank you. I was stationed to the circuit – which means I did not choose to come – to begin ministry on 1st September 2019 and as is usual in Methodism the appointment is for 5 years. I may not have chosen to come here but I have loved serving in this beautiful part of England. I did know the area because in the 1990s I worked in the Finance Department of Staffordshire Moorlands District Council when we lived in Cheshire and before I trained for ordained ministry. It is now the right time to retire and to move to Derbyshire.

I have loved living in Endon and really feel part of the community and being so involved in the Well Dressing; I really will miss that. I have been grateful for links with St Luke's Parish Church and St Luke's Academy and singing in the Community Choir. We have done so much together as two churches, continuing those things that have been in place for some time including the weekly Holy Communion service, monthly services at Hillwood Lodge, the annual memorial service and lent groups. But also working together on new things; my swan song will be a 'Churches Together' marquee at the Leek Show, just two days before I move! Thank you to so many individuals at St Luke's who are as special to me as folk in the Methodist Church.

We are very fortunate in Methodism as we do not have an interregnum between Ministers. We knew last November that Rev Denise Williamson has been stationed to our circuit to begin ministry in September 2024. She has visited twice and met members of Endon Methodist Church; she will be living at The Manse in Endon.

I want to share a poem by Ruth Burgess of the Iona Community and used with permission. You may not be moving home but it is time to go into the unknown future, trusting in God:

Time to go now.
Time to discover what's round the corner.
Time to discover some of the answers to my questions.
Time to go.
Time to go now.
Time to share the love that's inside me.
Time to risk trusting Jesus.
Time to go.
Time to go now.
Time to listen to the Holy Spirit.
Time to walk with friends and strangers.
Time to go.
Hey God, whatever time is
You made it –
Nights of it, days of it,
Seconds and moments and hours and weeks and years of it.
You made me to dance and cry and smile and rejoice in it.
You call me now – ready or not!

From 'Moments of our nights and days'. www.ionabooks

Thank you Eleanor for all your support for us here at St Luke's especially during our present interregnum. We pray the Lord's blessing on you in your retirement.

 For ages 5 -11 10am – 12noon

PLACES OF WELCOME: MUCH MORE THAN JUST A CUPPA

Places of Welcome are a network of hospitality, safe spaces in the local community where people can connect, belong and participate. Registration to the national network is free, but the coffee morning or drop-in should fulfill five criteria to join.

- 1. PLACE: An accessible and hospitable building, open at the same time every week.
- 2. PEOPLE: Open to everyone regardless of their circumstances or situation, and usually staffed by volunteers.
- 3. PROVISION: Offering free refreshments (at least a drink and a biscuit) and basic local information.
- 4. PRESENCE: A place where people actively listen to one another.
- 5. PARTICIPATION: Recognising that every person coming to a Place of Welcome will bring talents, experiences and skills that they might be willing to share locally.

Places of Welcome are a place where everyone can go for a friendly conversation and free refreshments, if and when they need it, and although they all meet the five expectations – they can all be very different – reflecting the communities they are in and their experiences and interests.

In their simplest form, they provide conversation and companionship over a cuppa, but did you know that some of our Places of Welcome provide other activities and support services? Here is just a flavour of what our Places of Welcome communities offer: sewing, gardening, citizens advice, councillor surgeries, knitting, yoga, exercise, arts and craft, colouring, litter picking, debt advice, counselling, foodbanks, clothing banks, haircuts, quizzes, singing and games.

But whether it's chatting over a cuppa and biscuit, taking part in one of the many activities or just finding a bit of support – they are always welcoming and inclusive.

Please do seek out your local Place of Welcome at www.placesofwelcome.org.uk or if you would like to host a Place of Welcome contact Carrie Blount at strengtheningcommunities@lichfield.anglican.org

Places of Welcome within Lichfield Diocese are supported by Carrie and her colleague, Lesley Bovington. To find your nearest Place of Welcome and read stories from visitors and volunteers, visit <https://www.lichfield.anglican.org/places-of-welcome>

Here Be Dragons!

Churchyards and cemeteries may seem strange places to look for animals which live in streams and ponds but actually they can be very good. Frogs, toads and newts all spend much of their lives out of the water and whilst dragonflies are aquatic during their larval stage it is the adult, flying insect that we see throughout the spring and summer. Whilst dragonflies will be returning to water to lay eggs, they can be seen cruising quite far away.

Dragonfly larvae may live for several years within water but for only a few weeks as a flying adult. It's not clear why they are called dragonflies, but other old names include Devil's Riding Horse and Devil's Darning Needle! They are an ancient type of insect with giant dragonflies found in the fossil record, dating from the Carboniferous era. Some fossilized dragonfly species would have had a wingspan of about 70cm.

Adult dragonflies eat smaller insects such as midges and mosquitoes. They can fly fast – reaching 25 to 30 mph with a loud buzzing sound and have excellent eyesight, using their compound eyes to find and catch prey as well as spot potential mates. You may see them basking on a churchyard wall or monument in order to warm up, wait for good weather or finish digesting. Flying takes a lot of energy so they spend much of their time sitting still. If you are both patient and lucky, you may also see predators of dragonflies or the smaller damselflies such as flycatchers and frogs.

One reason that burial grounds are good for dragonflies is that they can be havens for their food – small flying insects. Those managing churchyards, chapel yards and cemeteries rarely if ever use pesticides and there are often areas where these insects can breed, such as long tussocky grass, deadwood and woodland soils with old leaves, bark and hummus.

Why not spend some time checking on monuments and see if you can spot any dragonflies. Take a photo of any you see to upload onto the iNaturalist app which will both help you identify them and also make a record so others can see what you've found.

ST LUKE'S PCC

The next meeting of the PCC will take place on Wednesday 17th July in the chapter house at 7.30pm.

LIFE GROUP and OUR NEXT PRAYER BREAKFAST

This is what used to be our Bible Study. In July we shall meet just once on Thursday 18th at 7.00pm in the Chapter House to share fellowship and to deepen our faith through Bible study and prayer. This group provides an opportunity to raise questions about the Christian faith or particular aspects of faith. You will be very welcome to join us. Like to know more? Speak to Patricia at church or call 07854 418 488.

The next Prayer Breakfast will be on Saturday 6th July at 08.30 for breakfast and fellowship followed by prayer from 09.00 to 10.00.

NEWS FROM ST CHAD'S

Sheila T writes...

It's with great sadness that I have to report the death of James Benson on Sunday evening, the 9th June. James and his wife, Ros have been such a large part of St Luke's church, Endon for many years. James has had many visits to St Chad's and I had most dealings with him when he conducted some of the services for the crowning of the chestnut queens which I organised at the time.

Kathryn writes...

My association with James and Ros was PCCs, prayer meetings and his preaching at St Chad's.

“One lovely, faithful Christian man.”

He was a popular speaker and enjoyed by all.

Ros adds: Thank you so much Sheila and Kathryn for your kind comments and thank you to everyone at St Chad's who has warmly welcomed us both over many years. I can't quite remember what 'Crack-a-Dad' was about but the Chestnut Queen Crowning was held on Fathers' Day that year. James was always willing to enter into the fun of the event.

FLOWER & CRAFT CLUB will be taking a break during July and August but will be back in September; the date has yet to be confirmed.

ART GROUP will meet on Saturday 6th July at 10.30 following the Prayer Breakfast. If anyone is interested in learning the art of well dressing there is an invitation to help with the wells in Brown Edge. Our Art Group tutor, Nicola Shipley, has designed a well board and members of the group will be adding the petals, gravel, nuts etc from Sunday 7th to Friday 12th July. All are welcome to lend a hand at Steve Shirley's Barn. Please ask for more information if you feel you would like to help.
